*"Tea, My Dear,
and plenty of it!"*

Mrs. Sarah Bowler, Curator of The Moot Hall, Elstow, Bedford, in which John Bunyan used to preach, gave the above as the reason for her abundant vitality and good health at the age of 90. We have received the following letter from Mrs. Bowler. The letter speaks for itself.

Messrs. Lipton Ltd.,
City Road, E.C.1

Dear Sirs,

I believe I have to thank the wonderful properties of tea as a beverage for the fact that I have lived for 90 years, and that I am active, hale and hearty. I say again—tea, my dear, tea and plenty of it. And—a word in your ear—let it be Lipton's.

Yours truly,

Sarah Bowler.

Sarah Bowler (nee Mayhew), the then curator of Moot Hall, being presented with a box of tea by Sir Thomas Lipton in 1926, outside the main door of Moot Hall. This was in thanks for her letter, depicted in the above newspaper advertisement.
