Bedford Borough Council welcomes feedback from our customers.
We will use the feedback you give to improve our services.

Comment

You may wish to share a suggestion or idea about how we can improve our services.

Compliment

You may wish to tell us about a service that has been good or a member of staff who has been helpful.

Complaint

You may want to complain if the standard of service falls short of what you would expect, or if a member of staff does not do what they said they will.

Independent advice and advocacy

An advocate is someone who can help you to speak up for yourself or speak on your behalf, so you can have your views heard. They can attend meetings with you, carry out correspondence and telephone calls for you and third parties, and support you if you want to make a formal complaint.

VoiceAbility provide independent advocacy services in Bedford Borough, it is a free and confidential service. To find out more visit their website at:

www.voiceability.org

You can also contact them by phone or email:

Representation

You have the right for someone to make a complaint on your behalf. We will ask you to give consent for them to do this.

The Complaints Procedure

This document explains the process for making complaints or giving feedback about Adult Social Care. The Council has separate procedures for Children's Social Care complaints and for non Social Care complaints.

The Adult Social Care complaints procedure includes a range of options for resolving complaints. The complaint will be assessed and a decision made on the most appropriate option for response. We will be happy to discuss this with you.

Complaints will be acknowledged within 3 working days of receipt. You will be provided with details of how the Council proposes to handle your complaint including details of who will respond to your complaint and by when.

You will also be provided with details of the complaints procedure and what you can do if you are not satisfied with the action we propose to take to put things right.

Options for resolving Adult Social Care complaints

Face to Face Meetings

Customer Relations will support customers and staff to meet to discuss and agree how the complaint can be remedied. We would aim to do this within 10 working days or up to 20 where the complaint is more complex.

Local Resolution

The manager of the service complained about will investigate and aim to remedy your complaint within 10 working days. If the complaint is complex they may take up to 20 working days.

Independent Investigation

The Council recognises that there are some complaints that are or become complex or serious in nature that may require a more detailed investigation or review of the matters than a local manager can carry out. An independent investigator will aim to complete the investigation and produce a detailed report within 25 working days or for complex complaints up to a maximum of 65 working days. A senior manager from the service will provide a response to you following the independent investigation.

You will be provided with written confirmation of any actions or agreements made to resolve a complaint.

We will keep you informed of any delays to the timescales provided. The Council will try to resolve your complaint as quickly as possible and seek your agreement on how we do this. There may be instances where we seek your agreement to try more than one approach from the range of options.

Local Government & Social Care Ombudsman

If you have been through all stages of our complaints procedure and are still unhappy, you can ask the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman to review your complaint.

The Ombudsman investigates complaints in a fair and independent way - it does not take sides. It is a free service.

The Ombudsman expects you to have given us chance to deal with your complaint, before you contact them. If you have not heard from us within a reasonable time, it may decide to look into your complaint anyway. This is usually up to 12 weeks but can be longer for social care complaints that follow a statutory process.

About the Ombudsman

The Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman is the final stage for complaints about councils and some other organisations providing local public services. It also investigates complaints about all adult social care providers (including care homes and home care agencies) for people who self-fund their care.

Complaints about adult services and another organisation

Where your complaint relates to Adult Social Care and another organisation such as the NHS, we will work closely with the other organisation to ensure you receive a single coordinated response to your complaint. We will seek your agreement to share information before doing so.

If you have a complaint about Health related services (for example about a doctor, nurse, hospital or a dentist) you may wish to contact the local NHS Complaints Advisory Service for support. They are an independent organisation and will be able to help you understand the complaints process and explain what options are available to you.
