Privacy Notice – General Data Protection Regulations

With Reference to Personal Information

To deliver services to the citizens and communities in Bedford Borough, it is necessary for the Council to collect and process personal data about residents, staff and other individuals. Bedford Borough Council is committed to protecting your personal data when you use Council services or correspond with the Council. The Council is registered as a Data Controller with the Information Commissioner's Office. This registration can be viewed on the ICO website. Registration Number: Z5916725. As a Data Controller the Council sets out the purposes and methods for processing information and ensures safeguards over any personal and special information it processes.

The data is collected by Bedford Borough Council ("the Council") in accordance with the data protection principles in the Data Protection Act 1998. The purpose for collecting the data is to carry out the functions of the Council under its statutory duties under the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981. Information given by you on this Form may be disclosed to third parties as required by the Freedom of Information Act 2002 or in pursuance of the Council's functions detailed above.

Although it is not our preferred practice to share personal information and only redacted versions of this Form and accompanying map will appear on Bedford Borough Council's website with personal details hidden, because legislation contained in Section 53B of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 requires the Surveying Authority to keep a Register of Applications it is necessary to alert you to the fact that information contained in your completed Form will be made available via the Register on the Council's website. Further, you should be aware that your completed form may be made available to other parties who have a right to see it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. You should also be aware that a copy of your completed form may be included in the appendices to a report prepared by officers of the Council and may also be made available as part of a bundle of papers prepared for a future Public Hearing or Inquiry.

Your data will be held within the Council's secure network and premises and will not be processed outside the UK. Access to your information will only be made available to authorised members of staff who are required to process it for the purposes of this privacy notice.

The Batchelor Retention Guidelines indicate that for these purposes your information will be retained for the calendar year that we finish processing it and for a further two years.

In respect of your personal information you have the right to:

Be informed how we will process it

Request a copy of what we hold about you (in a commonly used electronic form if you wish).

Have it amended if it is incorrect or incomplete

Have it deleted (where the Council has no legal requirement to retain it).

If you would like to access any of the information we hold about you or have concerns regarding the way we have processed your information, please contact Information Governance, Bedford Borough Council, Borough Hall, Cauldwell Street, Bedford MK 42 9AP.
