

Data Protection Privacy Statement – Gambling Act 2005

In order to deliver services to the citizens and communities in Bedford Borough, it is necessary for the Council to collect, gather and process personal data about residents, staff and other individuals. Bedford Borough Council is committed to protecting your personal data when you use its services and/or correspond with it.

The Council has registered as a Data Controller with the Information Commissioner's Office. This registration can be viewed on the ICO website (opens in a new window) Registration Number Z5916725.

As a Data Controller, the Council sets out the purposes and methods for processing information and ensures safeguards over any personal and special category information it processes.

The sections below explain the arrangements we have in place to protect the information entrusted to the Council.

In relation to applications under the Gambling Act 2005 Bedford Borough Council will process your personal data for the following processing purposes:

To determine whether the application submitted meets the statutory requirements for such an application and if it does it may be granted. If it doesn't, a refusal decision will be issued by the Council. When the licence is granted it authorises matters under the Gambling Act 2005. Relevant details of this licence are included in the Public Register required under statute. The Council may create extracts from the register from time to time.

It is processing this personal data by virtue of the following Lawful Basis:

- Compliance with a legal obligation
- Performance of a task carried out in the public interest or exercise of official authority.

Personal data provided for Gambling Act 2005 applications may be shared with, or obtained from the following organisations (in addition to any other disclosure required by a Court of Law or in response to a valid request by, normally, a law enforcement agency:

- Council's appointed Veterinary Surgeon
- Council's Environmental Health and Trading Standard Service

The processing of your personal data will be restricted in time to:

The personal information you provide will be held for the duration of your licence from the date of receipt, after which it will be securely destroyed 5 years after the expiry, surrender or revocation of your final licence, in line with our retention policy (except in the event of an appeal or judicial inquiry, in which case it will be retained for as long as is required to determine these matters). Any complaint/issues raised about the Licence are retained for 5 Years before being destroyed. The Public Register will be retained permanently.

Your personal data will be held by/for the Council within the UK or the EU.

We have a range of measures to protect the personal data you provide. These include: cyber security; physical security of the Council's buildings and training on Data Protection for staff.
