Data Protection Privacy Statement – Civic Casework

In order to deliver services to the citizens and communities in Bedford Borough, it is necessary for the Council to collect, gather and process personal data about residents, staff and other individuals. Bedford Borough Council is committed to protecting your personal data when you use its services and/or correspond with it.

The Council has registered as a Data Controller with the Information Commissioner's Office. This registration can be viewed on the ICO website (opens in a new window) Registration Number Z5916725.

As a Data Controller, the Council sets out the purposes and methods for processing information and ensures safeguards over any personal and special category information it processes.

The sections below explain the arrangements we have in place to protect the information entrusted to the Council.

In relation to Civic Casework, Bedford Borough Council will process your personal data for the following processing purposes:

To respond to Civic Casework enquiries sent to the Elected Mayor. To respond to Freedom of Information requests and Subject Access requests.

Bedford Borough Council will only share your data with the following for the reasons stated below:

Cabinet Portfolio Holders; other Bedford Borough Council Service Areas for the provision of responses. The processing of your personal data will be restricted in time to 4 years – the period of the Mayor's term of office.

Your personal data will be held by/for the Council within the UK or the EU.

We have a range of measures to protect the personal data you provide. These include: cyber security; physical security of the Council's buildings and training on Data Protection for staff.

Bedford Borough Council is the Data Controller processing your information, who can be contacted as follows:
