Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email concerning the process relating to the Turvey Neighbourhood Plan examination.

The questions issued by the examiner to which you refer sought clarification from both the Borough Council and the Qualifying Body on a number of matters, including issues raised in the representations. The responses to those questions, alongside the comprehensive written representations made (the opportunity for which was provided to all interested parties at the Regulation 16 consultation stage) have formed the basis of the examination assessment, alongside the submitted plan and accompanying statutory and evidential documents.

At this juncture, the examiner is satisfied that the Regulation 16 responses have clearly articulated both the support and objections to the Plan, and are sufficiently comprehensive for her to be able to determine whether the Plan meets the Basic Conditions (and is suitable to proceed to a referendum) in order for her to complete the report.

Best wishes
Steve Carnaby
Associate Director
