

Huddleston Way Supported Living Project

Support for people with learning disabilities

About us

Huddleston Way is a supported living project located in Bedford for adults with a learning disability. The project offers the opportunity to experience and progress into more independent living, through a tenancy with Stonewater Housing Association.

Services we offer

Huddleston Way is staffed from 7:00am – 11:00pm. Between the hours of 11:00pm and 7:00am there is a member of staff sleeping in that can be contacted in emergencies. The project is staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week

We can provide the following training and support services:

- Shopping
- Cooking and healthy eating
- Checking post and completing forms
- Using public transport - Independent travel training

Our Aims

The main objectives of the project is to work with you to develop personal and independent living skills. We carry out assessments to identify the areas in which you may require training.

This is used to enable a training plan for you to use at project to support your journey to independence.

We aim to achieve this by pursuing the following objectives:

- Working in partnership with you to create an environment that encourages personal development, confidence, self esteem and promotes your independence
- Respecting your individuality and preferences
- Acknowledging your rights to full involvement in decisions affecting your life
- Promoting rights to privacy, respect, individual choice and an understanding of responsibilities
- Encouraging you to express your views and concerns, listening to and then responding, both as groups and as individuals
- Respecting your cultural, ethnic and sexual identity and promoting choice
- Encouraging the use of independent advocates

We can also provide:

- Help and advice when you are moving into a new house or flat
- Independent living experience in a group home
- Support with day-to-day living
- Support you to attend appointments such as the doctor, dentist or optician

Safeguarding adults

Abuse is mistreatment by any other person that violates your human and civil rights. Bedford Borough Council is committed to safeguarding vulnerable adults from abuse (SOVA). If you are being abused or suspect that someone you know may be the victim of abuse contact our Safeguarding Team on Tel: 01234 276222. Your concerns will be taken seriously and will receive prompt attention.

Having your say

We would like you to tell us how you think Bedford Borough Council's Adult Social Care services have worked for you and what you think of our services.

To give us feedback please or speak to the manager and staff at Huddleston Way please use the contact details below.

Eligibility and access:

Huddleston Way provides a service to adults with a learning disability and those transitioning into adulthood who are eligible for Adult Social Care Services and are assessed as needing training and support to enable the development of skills and confidence to promote progress towards an increasingly independent lifestyle.

If you or anyone you know would like to use the service or find out more about the support available for people with a learning disability and their carers please contact the Adult Learning Disability Team on 01234 276762. They can offer you advice on eligibility, the referral process and whether you will have to pay any contribution towards the cost of care
